DETAILED ACTION

1. The enclosed detailed action is in response to the Amendment submitted on February 18, 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-2, 8-10, 15-19, 28-29, and 35-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the submitted prior art Masden et al. (WOPN: 91/03024).

Art Unit: 2187

Regarding claims 2, 16 and 29, Masden discloses detecting that the step of receiving the resource at the requestor has occurred (Page 6, L 32-22 – when the unlock and close file instruction is received, it is detected that the requestor received the resource); and sending a lock assume message from the requestor to the master to inform the master that the requestor has assumed the lock mode relative to the resource (Page 6, L 32-33 – when the workstation sends an unlock instruction, the master is informed that the requestor had assumed the lock mode relative to the resource).

Regarding claim 15, Masden discloses a processor [processor within the file server]; a computer readable medium storing instructions [storage medium for storing controls instructions/code] which when executed by the processor causes the processor to perform the following: sending from a requestor (Figure 2, any one of References 104, 106 and 110) to a master (Figure 2, Reference 202; server process) of the resource a lock mode request for a lock mode on the resource (Page 6, L 25-28); receiving the resource at the requestor from a holder (Figure 2, Reference 204 and 206) of the resource (Page 6, L 28-30), wherein the holder of the resource is separate and distinct from the master of the resource (the holder and master are separate and distinct processes within the same node); and accessing the resource as if the requestor had been granted the lock mode request without waiting to receive an express lock mode grant from the master (Page 6, L 30-32).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 3-14, 17-27, 30- 41 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed February 18, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Regarding Applicants argument with respect to claims 1, 15 and 28, the Applicant has indicated in the specification that the holder, master and requestor are separate processes, which may be on the same node or different nodes (Page 1, Lines 19-21). In Masden's system the file server incorporates separate processes as the holder and master; thus the master and the holder are separate and distinct.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

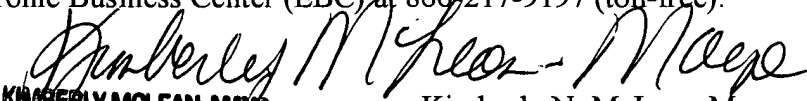

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
